

ULTIMATUM TO COAL MEN AND MINERS

President's Cabinet To Give Decision At 5 O'clock Today On Wage Increase Demands

(By Associated Press)
Washington, Nov. 26.—A definite statement on behalf of the government in the coal wage controversy will be made to the operators and miners late today by Fuel Administrator Garfield, who said the cabinet had reached a final decision. The operators and miners are called to meet at 5 o'clock to receive it.

While neither Garfield nor the members of the cabinet would say what the cabinet's decision was, it is reported the Fuel Administrator has won his point for an increase of 20 to 25 per cent in the miners' wage as against the 31 per cent increase proposed by Secretary Wilson and agreed to by the miners. Garfield's statement was expected to be somewhat in the nature of an ultimatum.

A 20 and 25 per cent increase is understood to be acceptable to the operators but grave doubt is expressed whether the miners would approve it.

While officials withheld comment, there is a somewhat general impression that the operators will be called upon to bear practically all of the proposed wage increase.

Meanwhile, Garfield said, if the mine union officials held they could not accept anything less than the original demands of the Cleveland convention for a 60 per cent wage increase and a 30-hour week, it might be several weeks before a final settlement is reached.

The controversy in the cabinet centered around the proposals of Fuel Administrator Garfield that in computing wage increases, advances to all miners in the central competitive field be taken into consideration, and of Secretary Wilson that an increase to pick miners be the basis. The mine workers president supports Wilson's proposal.

Pre-War Wire Rates Still On
The State Railroad Commission Tuesday entered an order authorizing the American Telephone & Telegraph Company to continue in effect the rates established by Postmaster General A. S. Burleson when the telephone and telegraph companies were under federal control. The order is identical to one entered recently by the Cumberland Telephone & Telegraph Company and the Home Telephone and Telegraph Company to continue in effect the war-time rates.

Lexington Faces Sugar Famine

ROMAN COINS DUG UP IN LITTLE FRENCH TOWN
Laon, France, Nov. 26.—A chest of Roman coins, buried in the face of invasion every hundred years since 500 years A. D. is now providing comfort for the refugees around the little French village of Charnes in the Aisne district.

The chest, containing the wealth of an ancient Roman nobleman, was dug up this week near the ruins of the chateau of Major Titus Leroux, of Charnes, head of one of the oldest families of France. It is the last heirloom of the aged officer and his wife, and they have willingly cast it into the Red Cross fund to aid the people of their district.

ARTILLERY GENIUS EXECUTED IN MEXICO

(By Associated Press)
El Paso, Texas, Nov. 26.—Gen. Felipe Angeles, Mexican revolutionary leader and famed throughout the world as a military genius was executed by a Carranza firing squad at Chihuahua City early today, following his conviction with two companions in charges of rebellion against the Mexican government, according to a Chihuahua City telegraphic report here today. Angeles was famous as the man who brought the French 75 millimeter gun to perfection and made it admittedly the best piece of artillery in the world. He was decorated by the French government with the Legion of Honor in recognition of his services during the war. He became the guiding spirit of the Villa revolutionary movement and recently was captured with a handful of his followers.

YANK BOOZE HURTS IRISH DISTILLERS

(By Associated Press)
Dublin, Nov. 26.—The importation of many thousands of gallons of whiskey from America, as a result of prohibition in the United States, has caused alarm in the Irish distilling trade.

War restrictions have greatly hampered the Irish trade. The distillers were prevented in the 1916-17 season from making the usual quantity of whiskey. Next year they were closed down altogether, and even in the present year were only permitted to make a reduced supply. The prices, of course, went up, and distillery shares advanced in the Stock Exchanges.

The American whiskey can easily be sold at a lower price than the Irish article, and it is being freely taken up by the Irish retailers. One provincial bonder is said to have paid nearly $200,000 in duty on his consignment. What distillers are most afraid of is that the American spirit may be blended or "faked-up" and sold as Irish or Highland whiskey.

One interesting fact stated in the Dublin papers is that at present no American whiskey is sold in Dublin as such.

Why Wait Any Longer?

Washington, Nov. 26.—Altho the Mexico City press said the reply of the Mexican government to the American note demanding the release of American Consul Agent Jenkins was expected to be handed to the American embassy yesterday, it had not been received here, the State Department announced today.

Frank Bet On Big Game

West Point, Nov. 26.—The West Point cadets have made a unique bet: with the Annapolis midshipmen on the outcome of the football game to be played on Saturday at the polo grounds next Saturday. The cadets have wagered the blanket which graces the back of the army mule mascot and which is done in gorgeous blue, gold and gray, against the blue and gold affair which the navy goat mascot will wear as he trots up and down the side lines. "If we can't get the navy's goat, maybe we can get the goat's blanket," said a cadet today.

VANDERBILT GETS GIFT OF $4,000,000

(By Associated Press)
New York, Nov. 26.—Vanderbilt University, Nashville, Tenn., has been given four million dollars by the General Education Board to effect an entire reorganization of its medical school. This gift, the largest ever made by the board, comes from its general funds. "It will suggest to the whole country," says the announcement, "the importance which the Board attaches to creating in the south at this time a medical school of the most advanced type."

MAP OUT DRIVE PLANS AT LUNCHEON

The luncheon given by the ladies at the First Baptist church last evening in the interest of the 75 Million Dollar Campaign was a success in every way. The seven captains and their teams were arranged in groups at the table so that matters pertaining to the campaign might be conveniently discussed. Director O. O. Green and Organizer U. P. Evans had previously divided the membership of the church into seven groups corresponding to the seven teams which are to do the canvassing on Sunday afternoon between the hours of two and six o'clock. Dr. Green carefully explained the object and plan of the campaign and answered many questions that naturally arose. A free discussion was entered into and much interest manifested. It will be the aim of these teams to see personally every member of the First Baptist church also other Baptists who are living in the city with membership elsewhere. The pledge cards of the latter will be sent to the church where membership is held.

Baptists to Sign Pledges

In the drive which is to be made by Southern Baptists November 30th to December 7th a pledge card is to be signed by every member of the church and the payments are to be made either weekly, monthly, annually or all in cash at one time if the person so wishes. The plan has been so carefully worked out that when the pledge cards are signed a copy of the card will be sent to the general headquarters at Louisville for the State of Kentucky and it is the hope of the State Board to assist in the collecting of the pledges where aid is needed. For instance, a church member moves his or her residence to another section or city and the church to which they will go, in needing information about the amount of this person's pledge, can get it from the State Board office.

The following reasons have been outlined why ever Baptist should sign a pledge.

1. Because it is for Christ and his cause. Baptists can afford to tie up with their Savior with their property for five years when He has tied up with them with all He has throughout eternity.
2. These pledges will be of help to the local church in the collecting of the pledges. The individuals will not be dunned by some far-away agency.
3. Because these pledges will put religion on the same sort of business policy that every other worth-while business is carried on. Continually people are buying homes, lands, autos, bank stock, on time and bind themselves to pay.
4. Because of the great fellowship in it, it is a movement in which three million are expected to have a part. When all will do their equal part of it, it will help the whole undertaking.
5. It is the only way Baptists can do a really great thing. The boards will be able to plan their work in detail as they will know what amount of money will be secured.
6. Because Baptists should believe and know that all they have and own really belongs to God. Stewards and trustees is the prevailing thought to be borne in mind.
7. Because of the crying need of the world which is suffering and in sin. The only cure that can be given will come thru the signing of these pledges when the whole world can be helped by the blood of Christ. The cross will then be raised high.

GARRARD'S CORN AND TOBACCO EXHIBITION

Proves Big Success In New Warehouse—List Of The Premiums Awarded

Lancaster, Ky., Nov. 26.—Lancaster celebrated the completion of her magnificent new $75,000 tobacco warehouse with a Corn and Tobacco Fair, which proved a splendid success in every way. The big affair promoted by Messrs. Robt. Kinnaird and R. T. Peddicord was perhaps the biggest, most unique thing ever pulled off in Garrard. From Monday till Saturday, day and night, the exhibition was open, and crowds of home town and county folk and visitors from adjoining counties streamed through the doors.

Practically every business concern in town had an exhibit, the booths being arranged around the extensive hardwood "floor" of the building; the center being allotted to the woman's display and to the band stand from which Smittie's band, of Cincinnati, entertained the crowds. The woman's display was especially effective, decorated in the elegant quilts in patch work strung up having the decorative values of posters. A close inspection of the booth howed exquisite designs in fancy work of crochet, tatting, embroidery and knitting.

BELOVED YOUNG GIRL GOES TO HER REWARD

Miss Elizabeth Wagers Dies At Home Of Her Parents, On Lancaster Pike

The death of Miss Elizabeth Wagers which occurred at two o'clock Wednesday morning at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Will Wagers on the Lancaster pike, has brought sorrow, unspeakable and deep, to many hearts. For many months she had been a great sufferer, but was never heard to utter a word of complaint, and she seemed to exert every effort to be as little trouble to her loved ones and friends as possible. This was a trait which characterized her whole life.

The passing of Elizabeth Wagers is one of the saddest deaths that has occurred in Richmond in many years. In the most unassuming and unselfish way, she attracted and won for herself the love and affection of every one she met, by her cheerful and happy disposition. She was the idol of a happy household and hundreds of friends feel a personal loss and sorrow tempered only by the knowledge of what death means to the beautiful spirit. Though she was permitted to live but a few short years, her life leaves an imprint for good. Those near and dear to her have the comfort of knowing the world was made better by her brief life.

She is survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Will Wagers, two sisters, Mrs. Crutcher West and Mrs. Garnett Million, one brother, Sara Parks Wagers, to whom the very deepest sympathy is extended by all.

Funeral services will be held at the First Christian church of Richmond, of which she was a devoted member. Thursday afternoon at 1:30 by her pastor, Rev. Homer W. Carpenter. Interment will be in the Richmond cemetery. The pallbearers will be Messrs. Crutcher West, Charlie Wagers, Jonah Wagers, Jr., Garnett Million, Jonah Cox and Robert Street.

MRS. TOM THUMB, FAMOUS DWARF IS DEAD

(By Associated Press)
Middleboro, Mass., Nov. 26.—Mrs. Tom Thumb died here last night after a long illness. One of the world's most famous dwarfs, Mrs. Tom Thumb who was correctly but less popularly known as the Countess Mafri, measured only 32 inches in height. Born in Middleboro, Mass., 70 years ago, she outlived all the professional associates of her generation. Her first husband, General Tom Thumb, has been dead for 30 years. Her sister, also a dwarf, still smaller, died 35 years ago. The parents were of large stature, and numerous children born to them, with two exceptions, were of normal size. At birth Lavina Warren, for such was Mrs. Thumb's maiden name, weighed six pounds. And at the age of one year she was of normal size. For the next nine years she grew slowly and then suddenly shot up altogether. At 70 her hair was still a black, and fine black eyes sparkled from a full, round, dimpled face and her voice was always soft and sweet.

Her first public appearance was at the age of 17, under the management of a cousin who operated a "floating palace of curiosities" on the Ohio and Mississippi rivers before the Civil War.

She met P. T. Barnum in 1862. Then began her great career under his management. It was a tour of triumph through the camps of the Civil War foreign capitals. It is said that her photographs are in more family albums than any other person's in the world's history.

Her public career occupied 56 eventful years. During this time she traveled over the civilized world and had been introduced to nearly every crowned head and eminent person in every country she visited.

"It has been asserted," said this remarkable little woman, "that General Tom Thumb had kissed more women than any man. I can with equal assurance assert that I have shaken hands with more human beings in all stations of life than any other woman in existence. My travels have embraced Europe, Asia, Australia, Africa and America."

Accumulating a large fortune, Mrs. Thumb made her farewell tour in 1912. Her second husband, Count Magri of Italy is also a dwarf. He became a naturalized citizen of the United States shortly after marriage to Mrs. Thumb.
